Calendly Dossier (LI + Twitter + Company)

Every new booking triggers a one-page dossier on the prospect — pulled from LinkedIn, Twitter/X, and their company site — and drops it into your inbox 10 minutes before the call.

THE PROBLEM

You walk into sales calls cold.

A demo lands on the calendar. You open the meeting blind, ask discovery questions you could have answered yourself, and waste the first 8 minutes building rapport you should have walked in with. Meanwhile the buyer is wondering why you don't know their stack. A 60-second dossier closes that gap. Auto-build one the moment they book, deliver it 10 minutes before the meeting starts.

Stack & setup

Tech stack

LAYER	TOOL	COST/MO
Orchestration	n8n (self-host / cloud)	$6-20
Booking source	Calendly webhook (free tier OK)	$0
LinkedIn lookup	Unipile or Apify LI scraper	$29-49
X lookup + company	Apify actors + HTTP scrape	$5-15
LLM dossier	Claude Sonnet 4.6	$4-10
Delivery	Gmail send	$0
Total	—	$44-94

Before you import

- n8n instance reachable on a public URL
- Calendly account (any tier — webhooks work on free)
- Unipile account with LinkedIn connected OR Apify token + LI scraper actor
- Apify token (twitter-scraper actor) — covers X + extra fallback
- Anthropic API key with $10+ credit
- Gmail OAuth in n8n for the send-from address

Setup (60-90 min fresh, 25 min if n8n is already wired)

1. Spin up n8n on a public URL (Hostinger VPS or n8n.cloud)
2. n8n credentials: Anthropic API, Apify token (Header Auth), Unipile API, Gmail OAuth2
3. Workflows → Import from Clipboard → paste JSON from page 4
4. Copy the webhook URL from the trigger, paste into Calendly → Integrations → Webhooks → invitee.created
5. Replace REPLACE_ME_LI_ACCOUNT_ID and REPLACE_ME_FROM_EMAIL
6. Edit the dossier prompt — list your top 3 qualifying questions and ICP fit signals
7. Book a test slot on your own Calendly, verify the email arrives, then activate
